CAPT. BAKER MAKES ADDRESS

Presents the Question of County Exhibit at Jamestown.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHESTERFIELD, VA., June 25 .- The county supervisors to-day wound up the fiscal year's work with a busy day at the courthouse. The advisory road board, composed of six members, representing each magisterial district, also held a meeting and outlined the new year's for the permanent Improvement road forces. The latter board submitted a resolution calling upon the supervisors to increase its road-working force and lay an additional levy for road improvement, which resolution and motion seemed to meet with the approval and favor of the supervisors, though action on the matter was deterred till the July meeting of the board. An additional tax of ten cents on the hundred dollars of property value will mean an increase of about six thousand dollars in the road fund. In answer to an invitation of the supervisors, Captain W. W. Baker addressed their meeting this afternoon regarding an appropriation for a county exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition next year. Captain Baker was happy in his praise of Chesterfield's great and varied rescurces, and recommended to the board, as a duty to its young citizens in opening to meet with the approval and favor

Professor Arthur K. Davis, president by the processor of the Southern Female College, on South Sycamore Street, brought an action through his counsel, Davis & Davis, before Judge Mullen, of the Hustings Court, to restrain the city engineer, Mr. Budd, and the Southern Contracting Company, who were paving South Sycamore Street with granolithic pavements, from cutting down or otherwise Injuring the trees in front of the Southern Female College. A temporary injunction was granted Mr. Davis by Judge Mullen. Argument on the motion to dissolve the injunction was heard on Saturday afternoon. Mr. George Mason appeared for the city. This morning Judge Mullen rendered his decision and dissolved the injunction. The order of the court, however, put the coars on the city, for the reason that at the time the injunction was granted the defendants had no authority to do the work enjoined, the authority having been given at a day subsequent to the granting of the injunction and prior to the hearing of the motion to dissolve. The counsel for plaintiff took an appeal, and a subpending order was granted for thirty days.

These proceedings in court will de-ay the improvement of Sycamore Street and make doubtful the legality of the ac-lay the improvement of Sycamore Street and make donotrul the legality of the actions of the special improvement committee of the Town Council.

It is claimed by parties interested that the failure of the city's representatives to notify the abutting property owners between Oak and Fillmore Streets of the width of the proposed granolithic sidewalk may result in the city's having to pay the whole cost of the improvements. Messrs. T. S. Beckwith, Jr., and W. T. Baugh, the delegates from Post C. of Petersburg, to the Travelers' Protective Association convention in Buffalol N. Y. express regret at recent publications in Richmond relative to the lack of hospitality and attention shown the delegates. They assert that Buffalo hospitality was everything that could be desired.
